

Handwritten text in a stylized, cursive script, possibly representing a name or a signature. The main body of text is written in a thick, black, flowing line, starting with a small loop on the left and ending with a sharp, downward-pointing stroke on the right. Above the main text, there are several smaller, more distinct characters or symbols, including a large, curved stroke that resembles a comma or a flourish, and a series of three small, circular or oval shapes followed by a vertical line and a curved stroke, which could be interpreted as a date or a specific mark.
